

Marubeni Certified as a Health and Productivity Management Organization (White 500)

On February 20, Marubeni Corporation (hereinafter, “Marubeni”) has been certified as a Health and Productivity Management Organization (White 500) FY 2018, by the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry (METI) and the Nippon Kenko Kaigi.

The Certified Health and Productivity Management Organization Recognition Program began last year and endeavors to highlight outstanding enterprises engaged in efforts to advance health and productivity management.

Marubeni has set employee healthcare as an important management issue, and has cooperated with its in-house clinic and health insurance society to promote corporate healthcare support for prevention and treatment of diseases related to lifestyle and other serious diseases and illnesses. In recent years, Marubeni has initiated new measures to enhance healthcare support, such as subsidization of cancer screenings and full medical checkups (including brain examinations).

In order to enhance the wellbeing of all employees and also to maximize their performance, Marubeni continues to support and promote physical and mental healthcare.
